

Non-Disclosure Agreement

Purpose

Protect confidential business information exchanged between the parties.

Confidential Information

Source code, customer lists, pricing, business strategies, product roadmaps, and financial information.

Term

This agreement remains effective for 3 years from the effective date.

Exceptions

Information already public or independently developed is not considered confidential.

Breach

The disclosing party may seek legal remedies and damages for unauthorized disclosure.